"The happy/sad system is working well for us. We have our son so well trained now that I only have to say 'the sad face is going up on the fridge' and he stops straight away." - Natalie

Dr John Irvine is one of Australia's best known child psychologists. Highly regarded in his field, John is the author of Who'd be a Parent, A Handbook for Happy Families and Thriving at School.

families in the fast lane

Dr John will look at some of the fast management styles we try, why they don't work and offer good constructive and effective strategies that help raise good kids and retain parental sanity.

thriving at school and at home

Dr John will address school related issues such as bullying, homework, loneliness, ADHD, Separation Anxiety together with issues raised by parents and teachers.
